Policies and Funding
Victim Blaming
Rape Culture
De-Valuing
Denial of the experience, our mere experiences are invalidated, presumed incompetent, intra-racism, internal oppression, racial loyalty to a fault
De-Humanizing
Silencing, Invisibility, Micro Aggressions, assaults, homophobia and heterosexism, denial of humanity to the LGBTQI community
Stereotyping
Hypersexual, Mammy, Tragic Mulatto, Sapphire, Jezebel, we WANT sex more than other races at any cost. Black Women are always Angry
Over-Sexualizing
Misogyny, Misogynoir, placing lesser value on sex workers & normalizing sex work as the only valid and viable career
Objectification
Black Women are only depicted as cooks and maids, biased advertising, Sarah Baartman, Asexual, Unattractive, should just be happy to be alive
Cultural Appropriation
Sexualizing our cultural expressions (dance, fast children, making our children provocative), Music and Media industry, Post-Traumatic Slave Syndrome
Racism Bigotry
Societal Barriers
Denying Resources
Policy Driven Rules, Gate Keepers, creating loopholes, unemployment, government assistance, low-income
Systemic Barriers
Untested rape kits, inadequate court systems, police brutality against black men, legacy of slavery and Jim Crow
De-Valuing
De-Humanizing
Stereotyping
Over-Sexualizing
Objectification
Cultural Appropriation
Denying Resources
Systemic Barriers
Black Women's Triangulation of Rape
This model was designed to give service providers, funders and the community at large a model to understand and see the barriers that exist for Black Women who need sexual assault services. Black Women who disclose need to receive culturally specific services regarding rape and sexual assault for a full and integrated experience for healing.
Created by the SASHA Model Committee in 2018
Demoralization/Exploitation
Systemic Barriers
Oppression Slavery Institution