

The Michigan Coalition to End Domestic and Sexual Violence (MCEDSV), established in 1978, is Michigan's statewide leader working to end domestic violence, sexual assault, and human trafficking. With more than 75 member programs across the state, MCEDSV provides training, legal advocacy, policy leadership, and direct support through the VOICES4 Hotline. Survivors can access free, confidential, and anonymous help 24/7 by calling or texting 855-VOICES4 (864-2374), chatting at MCEDSV.org, or using TTY at 517-381-8470.
